

Your 90-Day Ministry Plan

Five questions to capture God's vision for your ministry, aim every plan at making disciples, and protect yourself from burnout.

NAME _____

MINISTRY _____

CHURCH _____

MY BLUEPRINT HOUR (DATE & TIME) _____

All things are created twice

Every building stood complete in an architect's mind before ground was broken. Before Nehemiah rebuilt Jerusalem's walls, he prayed for months and walked the ruins alone at night. And before one board of the sanctuary was cut, God showed Moses the pattern on the mountain. Your ministry's first creation doesn't begin in the bulletin. It begins on your knees, receiving God's pattern before you build.

"See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount." — Hebrews 8:5 (KJV)

Before you begin

- ☐ Block 1–3 hours in a quiet place. Nobody answers these on the spot.
- ☐ Put your phone in another room. Make this a prayer hour, not a screen hour.
- ☐ Bring your Bible, your calendar, and the Pathway for Making Disciples (page 2).
- ☐ Lead more than one ministry? Use one copy per ministry.

Begin by listening

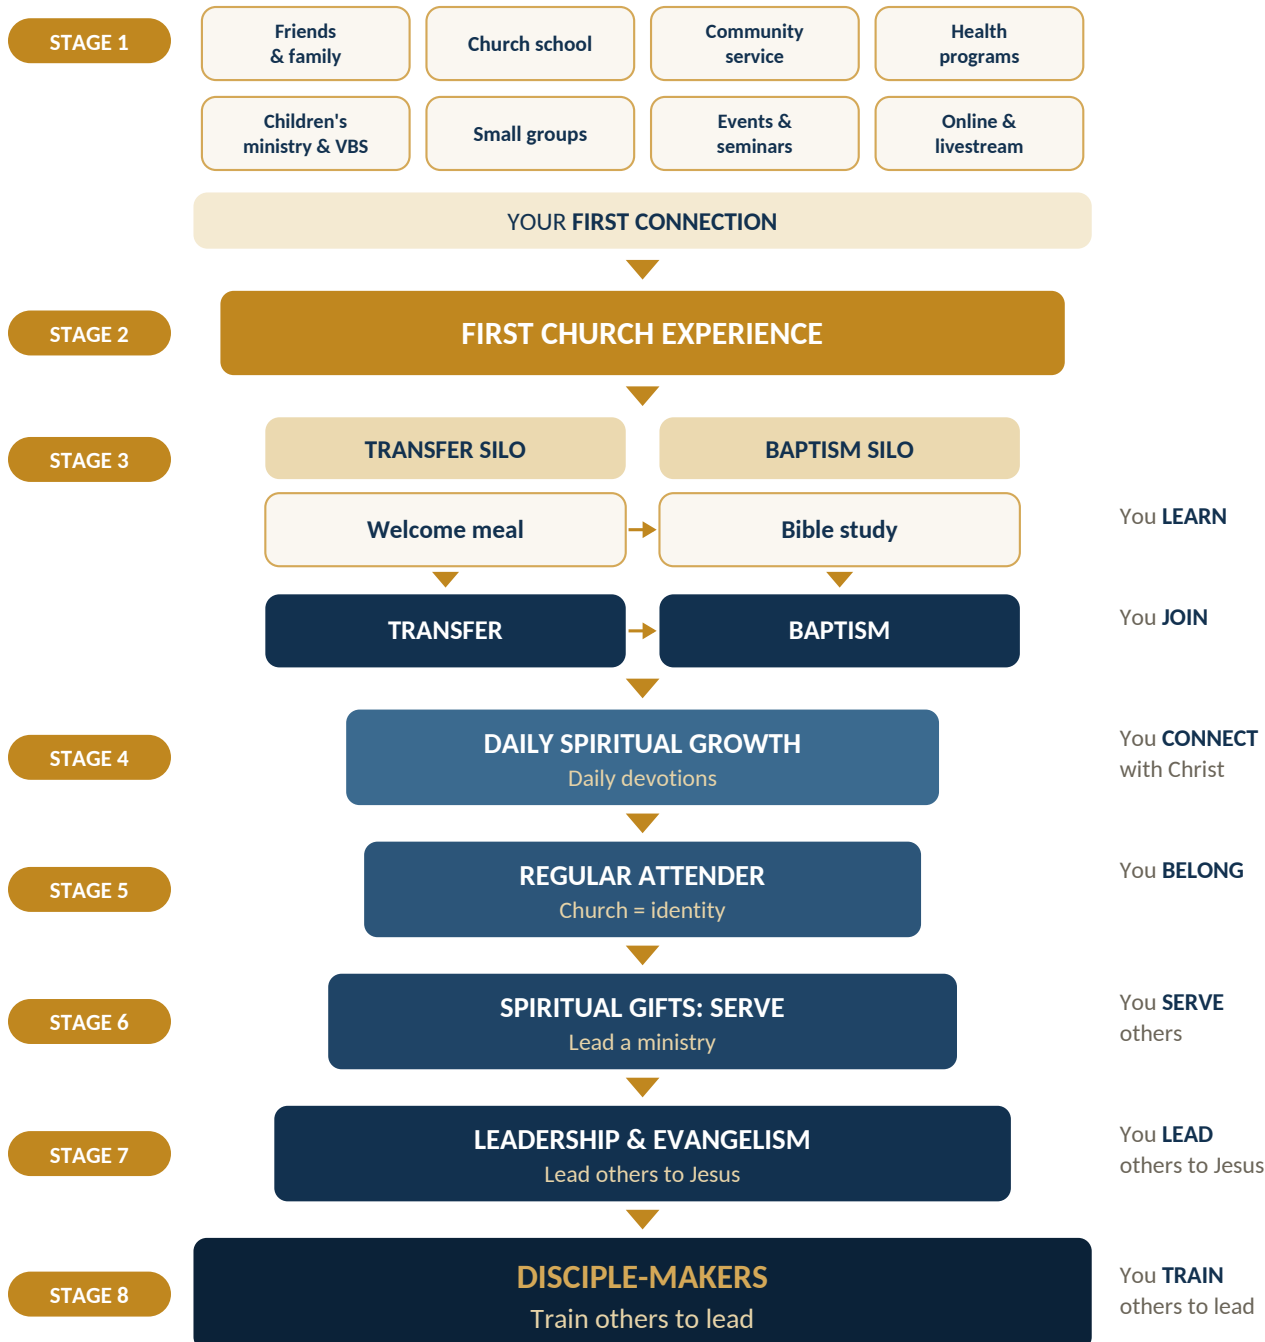

ABOUT 10 MIN

Read Exodus 25:40 and Nehemiah 1–2 slowly. Then ask: "Lord, who do You want this ministry to reach and grow in the next 90 days?" Sit quietly before you write anything.

What I sense God impressing on my heart:

The Pathway for Making Disciples

Every person who comes in contact with the church is somewhere on this pathway, and every plan you make should help someone take their next step. Keep this page open while you answer Question 2. If your church has its own version of the pathway, use that one.

1

What is your ministry doing in the next three months?

ABOUT 15 MIN

List what's already on the calendar and what you sense God calling you to add.

5.

2

What is each plan really designed to achieve?

ABOUT 25 MIN

Every plan should move someone one step on the Pathway (page 2). Name the step, and build the invitation to the next step into the plan itself. Example: an event for people having their first church experience should be designed around one goal: a second visit.

This quarter my ministry's primary step: Stage _____ → Stage _____ How many people? _____

Any plan that doesn't move anyone a step: redesign it or drop it.

What will I stop doing to make room?

3

What boundaries will you set right now to protect yourself from burnout?

ABOUT 20 MIN

“Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.” — Exodus 18:18 (KJV)

HOURS PER WEEK THIS PLAN NEEDS

HOURS PER WEEK I ACTUALLY HAVE

THE GAP

If the plan needs more hours than you have, shrink the plan or share the load. Don't spend your Sabbath or your family to cover the difference.

The Sabbath rest and family time I will protect:

One thing I will say no to this quarter:

My early warning signs that I'm running on empty:

Who has my permission to tell me I'm overloaded:

4

What resources, training, or mentorship do you need?

ABOUT 15 MIN

MONEY & SUPPLIES

PEOPLE & VOLUNTEERS

TRAINING & SKILLS

MENTORSHIP & COUNSEL

My one ask: I will ask _____ for _____ by _____ 5

Who is your Timothy? Who are you discipling to one day lead in your place?

ABOUT 15 MIN

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.” — 2 Timothy 2:2 (KJV)

My Timothy is:

No one yet? Three people I could invite to serve alongside me:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

One thing I will teach them this quarter:

One thing they will lead by day 90:

When and where we will meet:

Finishing well

MY VISION FOR THIS MINISTRY, IN ONE SENTENCE

My 90-day check-in

DATE _____ WITH (PASTOR, ELDER, OR MENTOR) _____

A prayer of commitment

Lord, this ministry is Yours before it is mine. Show me who You want to reach and grow, and help me build every plan around their next step toward You. Give me the humility to say no, and the faithfulness to raise up others. Let my work flow from rest in You. Amen.
